

Sexual Violence Support Counsellor (On Call/Casual)

Calgary Communities Against Sexual Abuse (CCASA) is the primary sexual violence service provider for Calgary and surrounding areas. CCASA is looking to hire individuals to be part of the Calgary Sexual Assault Response Team (CSART). This is an on-call casual position that provides 24-hour support to individuals who have recently experienced a sexual assault. We are looking for dynamic and flexible individuals who are able to work independently within a multi-disciplinary team.

Responsibilities of the Sexual Violence Support Counsellor (On Call/Casual) include:

- Responding to and supporting disclosures of sexual abuse/assault in a trauma informed, professional and supportive manner
- Completing thorough assessments regarding suicide risk, domestic violence, children at risk and shelter safety
- Providing crisis support, information, advocacy and referrals
- Working collaboratively with professionals from other disciplines

The successful applicant will have the following qualifications:

- A degree in social/human services with a minimum of two years related work experience
- Possess an anti-oppressive/feminist analysis of sexual violence
- Strong assessment and crisis intervention skills
- Understanding of trauma informed practice
- Knowledge of community resources
- Ability to build professional relationships within a multi-disciplinary team
